CHAP. V.

Esther, obtaining the king's favour, inviteth the king and Hamun to a banquet.

NOW it came to pass on the a third day, that Esther put on her broyal apparel, and stood in the cinner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she dobtained favour in his sight: and the king cheld out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the ftop of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, g What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the h half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther i answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the k banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 ¶ And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition ? and 1 it shall be granted thee : and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

7 Then answered Esther, and said, m My petition and my request is;

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the king hath said.

9 ¶ Then went Haman forth that day n joytul, and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was P full of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless Haman 9 refrained himself: and when he came home he sent and called for his friends, and 1 Zeresh his wife. 11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had a promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and * to-morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

13 Yet vall this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

CHAP. I.

1 Ferusalem's misery for her sins: 12 she bemoaneth her afflictions, 18 and confesseth God's judgments to be just. a Psalms

HOW doth the a city sit solitary that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and b princess among the provinces, how is she become ctributary!

2 She d weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her

3 Judah f is gone into captivity, because of affliction, and because of great servitude; she g dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the h straits.

4 i The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts; all her gates are desolate; kher priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the Lord hath afflicted her for the m multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion nall her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find one pasture: and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction, and of her miseries, all her P pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did 9 mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath r grievously sinned; therefore she is removed; all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her s nakedness; yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her tfilthiness is in her skirts; she " remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O Lond, behold my affliction; for the enemy hath * magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she bath seen that the y heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst Before command that they should 2 not enter cir. 588. into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek a 2 Acts bread; they have given their pleasan a Jer. things for meat to relieve the soul : see, 38.9. O LORD, and consider; for I am become b vile.

12 ¶ Is it nothing to you, all ye that 12. pass by? behold, and see if there be any 9, 12. sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is Luke done unto me, wherewith the LORD 10.30. hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From d above hath he sent fire into d Jer. my bones, and it prevaileth against 25.30. them: he hath spread a net for my Ro. 1. 18. feet; he hath turned me back; he hath 12.13.and made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The f yoke of my transgressions f Deut. is bound by his hand; they are z wreath-28, 47. ed, and come up upon my neck: he hath Mat. made my strength to fall; the Lord Prov. hath delivered me into their hands. from 5. 22. whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my h mighty men in the midst ha Kings of me; he hath called an assembly a- 24. 14. gainst me to i crush my young men: i Hosea the LORD hath trodden the virgin the 9. 13 daughter of Judah, as k in a wine-press Zeph.

16 For these things I weep: 1 mine k Rev. 14 eye, mine eye runneth down with water, 19,20. because the m comforter that should re- 13, 17 lieve my soul is far from me; my chil m Isaiah dren are desolate, because the enemy 40.1. n prevailed.

17 Zion o spreadeth forth her hands, n Esther and there is none to comfort her: the 3. 15. and LORD hath commanded concerning Ja- o Jer. cob, that his adversaries should be round 4.31. about him: Jerusalem is P as a mens- p 1 Sam. truous woman among them.

18 The LORD 9 is righteous; for I q Daniel have rebelled against his r command- 9. ment: hear, I pray you, all people, and r Psalm 110.72. behold my sorrow; my s virgins, and my s Deut. young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they t Jer. deceived me; my upriests and mine 14.14. elders gave up the ghost in the city, uchap, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20. Behold, O Lord, for I am in distress; my bowels are * troubled: mine x Isaiah 16, 11. heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled : 7 abroad the sword 32, 25, bereaveth, at home there is as death.

Before venth year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders cir. 593. of Israel came a to enquire of the LORD, a I Kings and b sat before me. 22. 15.

2 Then came the word of the LORD

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord Gop, Are ye come to enquire of me ! As I live, saith the Lord God, c I will not be enquired of by you.

4 ¶ d Wilt thou judge them, son of and 11.20. man? wilt thou judge them? e cause them to know the abominations of their e 1 Kings fathers;

5 And say unto them, Thus saith the f Deut. Lord Gon, f in the day when I chose 4.37, and Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto g Gen. the g seed of the house of Jacob, and had 14.16, 22. made myself known unto them in the h Exod. land of Egypt, when Lifted in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God:

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had i espied for them, flowing with milk and 11. 10, 12. honey, which is the k glory of all lands;

7 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the 1 abominations of his eyes, and m defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would " not hearken unto me : they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt; then I said, o I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. Neh.9.16.

9 But I wrought for my P name's sake, that it should not be polluted 9 before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 ¶ Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the s wilderness;

11 And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even them.

12 Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel * rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they y despised my judgments, which if man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted; then I said, I will 2 pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

14 But a I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also I b lifted up my hand un- Before to them in the wilderness, that I would christ not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and b Num. honey, which is the glory of all lands; 14. 28.

16 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their carrings heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless mine eye spared 4.23. them from destroying them, neither did I make d an end of them in the wilder d Exod.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

AFTERWARD a he brought me to the b temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the c breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side; and he 10. 9. and measured the elength thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door two cubits, and the door six cubits, and the breadth of the door seven cubits.

4 So he measured the length thereof, f 1 Kings ftwenty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits, before the temple; and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince, &c.

MOREOVER, when ye shall dia Psalm vide by lot the land a for inheritance, ye shall boffer an oblation unto the LORD, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be one length of five and twenty b Exod. thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all Romans the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the † most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the Lord; and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the d ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers.

6 ¶ And ye shall appoint o the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 ¶ And a portion shall be for the f prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the g west side westward, and from the east side eastward; and the 3. and 29. length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the and 42. 1, east border.

Jonah, being sent to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish: 4 he is thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW, the word of the LORD a 2 Kings came a unto Jonah, the son of Ammit-14. 25. tai, saying, Mat.

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, b that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up c before me.

3 But Jonah rose up d to flee unto Tarshish e from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and Jam. 5. 4. he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

4 T But the LORD f sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man g unto his god; and h cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them: but Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was i fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, k What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, I call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his felm 1 Sam. low, Come, and let us m cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the n Psalm the a fell upon Jonali. 94. 15. o Joshua

8 Then said they unto him, . Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil | days and hthree nights.

is upon us. What is I thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy CHRIST country? and of what people thou?

9 And he said unto them, I 9 am an 4.28. Hebrew; and I fear the Lord, the God q Rom. of heaven, which hath made the sea r Acts and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly $1 Peter s afraid, and said unto him, Why hast 4. 17. thou done this? (for the men knew 39.9. that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because be told them.)

11 Then said they unto him, " What u I Sam. shall we do unto thee, that the sea may 6.2. be calm unto us ! (for the sea wrought, 24.12. and was tempestuous.)

12 And he said unto them, * Take x John me up, and cast me forth into the sea: 11.50. so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that y for my sake this great y Eccl. tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men 2 rowed 27, 24. hard to bring it to the land; but they z 1 Cor, a could not: for the sea wrought, and 9.22. and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the 21.30. Lord, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood : for thou, O LORD, & Psalm hast done b as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast 3. 13. him forth into the sea: and the sea d d Psalm ceased from her raging.

1 The prayer of Jonah: 10 he is delivered out of the belly of the fish.

THEN Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God a out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the Lord, and he b heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast c me into the deep in the midst of the seas; and the floods d compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me. 4 Then e I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will flook again toward thy holy temple.

g Psalms 5 The g waters compassed me about 69. 1. and 102. 3, 4. even to the soul; the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever; h yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the Lord; and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe lying vanities k forsake their own mercy. 9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of 1 thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD. 10 ¶ And the LORD m spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAP. III.

1 Jonah, sent again, prescheth to the Ninevites: 5 upon their repentance, 10 God repenteth him of the evil.

AND the word of the Lord came unto Jonah the a second time, saying,

21. 45, 17. 1 Tim. 2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching b that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the c Ps. 119. LORD. (Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey.)

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and d2 Kings said, d Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown

5 \ So the e people of Nineveh believed G.d, and proclaimed a fast, and put 11. 21.and on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

> 6 For word came unto the king of Ninevel, and file truse from his thrine, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and a published through Nineveli. (b) the decree of the king and his nobles) saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd Before CHRIST nor flock, taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Beth-lehem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 c And thou Beth-lehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Beth-lehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young child; and, when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 ¶ When they had heard the king they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ d And, when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And, being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 ¶ And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, be took the young child and his mother by night, and de-

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18 In Rama was there a voice heard,

1 Of alms, 5 of prayer, 14 of forgiveness. 19 Our treasure. 24 Of God and mammon. 25 Against worldly care; 33 and to seek only the kingdom of God.

TAKE heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them; otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 a Therefore, when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues, and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand

4 b That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, himself shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ c And when thou prayest, thou
